

Twin Pathways

University of Greenwich

The University of Greenwich is situated across London and Kent with its three specialised campuses offering a wide-range of courses. The university has four faculties – the Faculty of Liberal Arts and Science, the Business School, the Faculty of Engineering and Science and the Faculty of Education and Health. The university provides excellent learning experience combines with world-class experience and best social life. The university was invested over £80 million in student facilities in the last 5 years, including a new award winning library, new student hubs, social spaces and television production studios.

London Greenwich Campus

15-minutes 🚶 from Twin Centre

16000+ students
from over 140 countries

Why go to the University of Greenwich

- 125 years of providing quality education
- Winner of TEF Silver award
- Main campus located in the friendly borough of Greenwich London
- More than £80 million invested in teaching spaces and student facilities
- Year-long work experiences available with all Business programmes
- Scholarships available for International Students

About the Business School

The Business School at the University of Greenwich has strong links with industry and runs a wide range of courses which are accredited by professional bodies.

Our degrees are focused to give you real working experience, with the ability to choose courses offering one-year placement opportunities as well as study abroad options. A dedicated team of staff has been appointed to guide placement students with their CV, job applications and assessment centre, to help get the most relevant placement to enhance your career options after graduation.

Accommodation

Student accommodation is guaranteed for students at Greenwich for their first year of studies. All accommodation is located within the walking distance of the main buildings of each campus. Amenities included on-site are gym, café, laundry services and social spaces.

Twin University Pathway

Foundation
in Business

Progression to over 30
Business and management degrees at the University of Greenwich

Complete the course with a minimum grade of D*D*
(112 UCAS points) and achieve an IELTS score of 6.0